EXPERIMENT! SOME AGENCY LEARNINGS

Netherlands Enterprise Agency more experimental way of working as an agency means cultural change and investment in building the capabilities needed to run a trail & learn from the results

you need allies on the side of decision makers, and also in the agency experiences limited to a small team, developing ideas for experiments is not the bottleneck, but pushing them towards implementation in a wider group is

some would-be RCTs ended up as pilots – still valuable for evidence based decision taking and building capabilities

Starting small has helped to evolve into an agency where it is normal to talk about pilots and experiments. RCTs might not be the only method to look at a certain question
