

Applications – points to note

Innovate
UK

EOI competition eligibility

- The EOI competition is open to single applicants or collaborations
- Academics cannot lead EOI's but can be part of a collaboration
- NHS can also be included within the consortium
- Note that the Grand Challenge proposal developed in the EOI phase must
 - include a minimum of three collaborating organisations,
 - have agreement on their roles in the consortium and how the funding will be distributed

Assessment

- Eol and CR&D programme applications will be independently assessed in line with standard Innovate UK competition processes.
- Grand Challenge proposals will be independently assessed, and will include an interview process
